We are not going to bounce any of the checks. What news organization are you giving the charity checks to. In my email to you on Thursday, I said "As soon as we have the results we will let you know what the verbal results are. We can then both go out at same time with results but whitehouse.com will be the only ones with the written results and video which we will post on Whitehouse.com site." I think that is pretty clear we will be keeping written results. We have no problem sending you a copy of the written results as we will post them on the website. We are still waiting for a typed copy of the report as we only have a handwritten copy which was faxed this afternoon to us. As soon as we receive the typed report we will fax it over to you. Have you gotten in touch with Limousine driver so we can talk to him. Thanks

The charities are concerned about the checks you wrote not being honored. I would appreciate you emailing me a statement or posting one on your site making it clear that the checks issued by Whitehouse dor com are good and will be honored.

Thank you.

As we spoke about on Friday. You had mentioned that the driver called Obama on Saturday November 6 from his cell phone and later Obama himself made a call on his cell phone to procure the drugs. If that was true you would then have 2 cell phone records for that date so there is no reason for the driver to be hiding. Also if he was indeed a friend of Obama that would come out as well. You told us you were going to put us in touch with him to corroborate your story and you did not. Thanks

You told both me and Rob in person that you were going to put us in contact with the limousine driver. You told me last night you were going to do it today. I said 12:00 Noon and you agreed. 12:00:00 PM has come and gone. We have not heard anything on the limo driver. Thanks

Since you have not gotten back to us we have moved back the release of the test results to Noon today EST which is about 30 minutes from now. You had said you would have had the limousine driver in contact with us by now but we have not heard anything on that either. Thanks

Is there a reason that Murray would be in LA, know where I was staying and even know that I went to dinner last night with a couple of friend that you can explain to me?

Why did you fail to mention when I called this afternoon you posted my drug test results? Or fail to mention to me that you had received the results?

The hotel records were shown to you at your request, however I made it clear no one was posting those on the web. Our arrangement in fact did not even seek any of the records I provided you. I do hope that you are going to honor our agreement.

I also am starting to feel a little uneasy with the amount of time you guys spent with Dr. Gelf outside my pressence. I am simply stating a fact that I am beginning to feel a little uneasy because of that and the manner inwhich you guys are posting stuff.

Maybe is is just my being tired.

You can post this afternoon what you wanted to post, after all this is a business that you need to continue operating in the best possible light to continue to be profitable, I just do not want anyone saying I am charging to agree to take the polygraph. I am indebted for all the attention you have brought to this issue.

You can post that if you send it to me to view prior to posting. Also I would appreciate it if you would make the point that the flat fee is for the rights to video tape and broadcast exclusively.

We will have final results in on Monday so you will be home by then. As soon as we have the results we will let you know what the verbal results are. We can then both go out at same time with results but whitehouse.com will be the only ones with the written results and video which we will post on Whitehouse.com site. I would like to post a story this afternoon saying how you are not taking one flat fee for taking the test with 1/3 going to charity as you really want to get your story out and you do not want any taint of you being paid extra to get a positive result with leaving the test times as still being next Tuesday. We will not name the amounts. I think that would be a very positive thing to do. Thanks

That s fine. We will bring all three company checks tomorrow to the testing. They will not be certified but we are a big organization here so I do not see where there is any issue. They will be Whitehouse.com Inc checks signed by me.

If you want to do this without doing the 100K yes, Because even the part coming to me is going to pay my mothers back bills and medication so yes, if that is acceptable to you. You still have all exclusive rights to video as you want, and I still agree that no other polygraphs can be done for 4 weeks.

Have Rob call me I have a different figure in mind and part of that figure I would want split into two separate certified or cashiers checks payable to two charities. It will still be a lot less than you will lose when I pass this test. Add 10K to what you suggests and have 5k each payable to the following

1. Duluth Salvation Army Housing Loan Program

and

2. Girls and Boys Club of Duluth

Let me know what you think?

If you want we can do this. We give you 20k either way instead of the way we have it and maybe you give $2,000 or 10% to charity. If you do that way then you get rid of all these bribe accusations. You will also look very good to the media and public as well. Thanks

I saw this interview this morning and posted your response in regards to another polygraph test. It shows that you are doing another polygraph with results in this afternoon in violation of our agreement. I have instructed bank to stop payment on the $20,000 check this morning. The $10,000 in checks going to the charities are not effected and will be paid. LS: I will continue to put my story out there. I am getting some assistance in amending the lawsuit for refiling, and please note, it has not yet been dismissed, nor has the recommendation to dismiss been received or written as claimed by the judge identified on the Web. I am not going away, I am not recanting anything, and I am fighting on, especially with the tip I received this date. I will do a polygraph arranged by me, video tape it non-edited and with the findings released before stopping the camera and will post it before Tuesday if all goes well.

I assume by your failure to reply you are denying prior knowledge of misrepresentations by Mr. Gelb and the information I received early this morning advising me that you were paid $750,000 by Axelrod associates to set me up? Do I assume correctly.
